What were the strengths of the course? What did you value most?

I enjoyed the videos and hearing the survivor's stories, definitely think that the DARSS model was extremely valuable

How could this be improved?

Continued training, this was very helpful, maybe hear a testimonial in person, but either way this was extremely helpful & informative

How will you apply what you learned?

We use DARSS model to make sure that I'm doing my best to have a proactive approach and really taking a step back to understand where the client may be in the stages of change.

What were the strengths of the course? What did you value most?
focus on moving from pre-contemplation to contemplation to planning as that's stage of change most applicable to our youth. A/so

How could this be improved?
N/A focus on safety planning. Really like hearing about lived experiences of how presenters got out of game

How will you apply what you learned?
when staffing cases -> focus on these issues/skills.

What were the strengths of the course? What did you value most?
 Rachel is a very engaging speaker with a lot of knowledge and experience. Good, concrete examples of solutions.

How could this be improved?
 No suggestions

How will you apply what you learned?
 It has made me more aware of things to look for in the women I encounter and know how better to serve them.
 Thank you, Rachel!

What were the strengths of the course? What did you value most?

I valued the personal experiences & stories the most.
Rachel was also very engaging & kept us interested in topics. Great presenter of information.

How could this be improved?

The only area I had difficulty with was the ethical dilemma surrounding supporting adult sex workers & legalization of sex work. Not sure how to improve that but would have like a more unbiased presentation of those issues.

How will you apply what you learned?

To my everyday work, with all my kids. Lots of it pertains to most of traumatized youth.

What were the strengths of the course? What did you value most?

very engaging and knowledgeable instructor.
great inclusion of videos.

How could this be improved?

It felt like the first day was too basic / too much review. Either make it shorter, or go more in depth.

How will you apply what you learned?

What were the strengths of the course? What did you value most?

I enjoyed the videos and hearing the survivor's stories, definitely think that the DARSS model was extremely valuable

How could this be improved?

Continued training, this was very helpful, maybe hear a testimonial in person, but either way this was extremely helpful & informative

How will you apply what you learned?

We use DARSS model to make sure that I'm doing my best to have a proactive approach and really taking a step back to understand where the client may be in the stages of change.

How could this be improved?

move through info quicker. There seemed to be a lot of cross promotion w/ presenter's business + curriculum. Maybe focus more on the curriculum content and objectives vs.

How will you apply what you learned?

marketing messages
continue to focus on engagement w/ y'all, and developing support

What were the strengths of the course? What did you value most? Instructor integrated we own experiences very effectively, and didn't overstate her knowledge. Good exercises, and explanation of racism and biding

How could this be improved? empathy & understanding of CSEC youth

Some slides were hard to read, also you talked about a theory before explaining it. Many folks don't know stages of change.

How will you apply what you learned?
